Healing Light for Gaia

In these times of ongoing planetary Transfiguration our species struggles to come to terms with the reality of a rapidly transforming civilization. Bear in mind we stand today only at the beginning of Aquarius, our Age of Unity Consciousness. What you see merging around the world is just the inauguration of a long period of rapid change. Transformation of global cultural divisions, limited antiquated understandings, and undisciplined self-centered activities must continue; it is vital for the survival of our species if we are to go forward as one people into a brighter future.

One hundred and fifty years ago we made our finale plans for a collective externalization into matter for we could easily hear the resonating call for assistance from Gaia, the Soul of Earth. By this time, most of the senior multi-dimensional masters of Earth’s Ascended Spiritual Council have at least one to three life extensions of their Spirit currently in form on the third dimension. Some have had up to seven although this number has proven to be impossible to sustain because of the severe imbalance within the planetary matrix. The Avatars inform us such externalizations of Spirit shall continue for the next three hundred years. Planetary instability increases each year as Gaia re-creates the reality of Transfiguration upon her surface throughout the various life spheres of this world. At this time of crisis we take incarnation once again to bring the light of higher truth into the depths of the lower dimensions.

I write to you about the necessity for all Lightworkers to function as healing agents for planetary stability as the life matrix is under great stress at many different levels of Being. This includes the different kingdoms and dimensions threaded throughout all but the highest realms of this world’s spiritual bodies.

DONATIONS ACCEPTED

As the premier species, we exist etherically, at this time, in a symbiotic relationship with Mother Gaia; we cannot experience our full Ascension and expression of the Divine Light until we have developed a mutually productive working relationship with the life force of our world. Unrealized to most but the more advanced Knowers of the race lies the knowledge of our responsibility towards our homeworld, it is a matter of our internal integrity and dignity, for how can humanity ever consider themselves evolved if they are living on a planet disseminated by the effects of severe human neglect? Who can respect the words of any species whose own celestial house lies in the sorrows of chaos and vast numbers of the populations are caught in the distortions of neurosis rendering them almost incapable of breaking forth into greater health? There must be a way that anyone who so chooses can serve as a potent healing agent for this world and for themselves!

Certainly there is, for let all those who so seek to serve in this manner learn of the power and use of The Rose Flame for healing Gaia's Abundant Life Matrix. This Rose Ray is the feminine counterpart of the Ruby Ray which is known to many as the masculine energetic representation of the Divine Christ Light. The Rose Ray of Light is a higher spectrum of electromagnetic wavelength light. It is the first color we can discern above the Violet Ray. The effects are more lasting when using this advanced frequency Rose Light as the energetics of this higher invisible spectrum are so expansive, it disperses naturally over greater distances. It is linked to the nurturing feminine aspect of God's Divine Heart and should be invoked and visualized whenever traumatic conditions exist which require healing. This is because the Rose Ray is tremendously expansive and long-lasting whereas the Violet Ray utilizes rapid, immediate contraction energy for clearing. Thus, using the Rose Ray will assist in reducing the unbalanced energies in Gaia's Abundant Life Matrix. Let us rejoice in that all this new knowledge is being released into the third dimension through God's Golden Avatara Emanuella.

When working with the Rose Light through mediation, visualize yourself connecting with the nurturing aspect of your heart. Feel, and visualize yourself emanating a sphere of rose/pink light from your heart and then allow this sphere to engulf your total being. Place your consciousness deep into the core of your heart, then with the intention of unconditional love connect to the heart of Gaia's Life Matrix. This is a method to utilize feeling and sensing to become a planetary conduit for this advanced healing power of love. Whenever you inhale the breath, push through your heart the pink/rose light of unconditional love and allow it to flow gently and continuously into the air of the entire planet. By working through the planetary air with this Divine Rose Light, we allow Gaia to breathe easier from the constant strain of unbalanced energies. Let us work with determination to love the heart of our planetary mother back into greater light and life. In so doing shall the spiritual seeker also find that this energy of Divine Love raises them above the imbalances found in a discordant, out-of-balance planetary matrix.

Let us stand firm, united as one to all life upon Earth and the Cosmos as One Loving Heart. The work is always laborious yet the rewards are great indeed.

A Healing Blueprint

“In a state of All Knowing, there is a Conscious awareness by the body of its natural position of well-being and perfect health. In recognition of such, there is a profound Understanding that all forms of dis-ease and dis-harmony are a result of resistance to Creative Source Flow, and a disbelief in the vibrational accord with the condition of well-ness. In this Realization, there is a release of all that is not in alignment with improved thoughts of perfect health, resulting in the Actualization of enhanced Form. In the direct outpouring, then, of Source Energy, Divine Healing is Manifested.”

In guiding humankind, God has given us Consciousness to be aware of everything that we create, so that, as arbiter of our own destiny, by the law of free will, we are the authority for our own world.

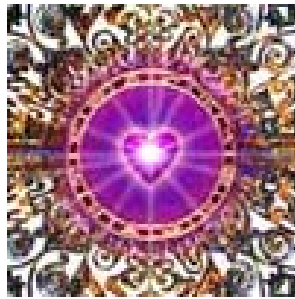

This pure substance of the Divine, which, as the perfect form of our True Spirit nature, our own God Presence, and our own Divine Spark, made in the likeness and image of God, must be an integral part of our being and doing. In keeping our sacred covenant with God, and in allowing only the impressions of the Real image to pass through our consciousness, we rubber-stamp ourselves as an expression of this Reality - the great, God-free, God-created Image, in all of its Light and buoyancy, and unlimited possibilities in the microcosm. This then is the key to our emancipation and heralds ultimate healing.

The fundamental principle in this Actualization is the vigilance we place in our realization and manifestation of the above: the invalidating ego, through thoughts, feelings, actions, and reactions of our own and others, has been perceived as a mortal enemy and this has hindered our true expression as a whole, healthy expansion of the Divine. It is our duty to become awakened to this Truth, to know ourselves more and more, and to manifest Love and Light in daily situations, and not according to any old distorted perceptions of reality, or maya illusion (ill fusion). Our all consuming focus on this transitory shadow of form can cause misqualified energy through misuse of the sacred fire, and this strips us bare, thereby preventing expression of our highest good and our True statehood.

To ensure then, that a condition of “wellness” permeates every facet of our thinking and experiencing, we must choose actions that this sponsors. This requires a change in beliefs and habits, so we make choices to impact constructively in the way we live. Through cognizance and discernment, undesirable qualities and prior programming must be eliminated and transitioned, so that we acknowledge the Truth of our condition and accept responsibility for it. We have, through an internalization into our core of stagnant energy and conflicting forces, inflicted upon ourselves a state of imbalance and caused dis-harmony and dis-ease; by embracing other people, objects, or, the influences of the masses in our becoming and being, rather than the Creator, we have defied Divine wholeness and paralyzed our forward progression into a state of “well-being”. Thus, by allowing the creative potential of the Macrocosmic energies to be increased within us, and through actualization of this Higher Self, and with sustained purification, we will begin to alleviate our own “suffering” and accelerate our own “deliverance.”

In the process of reclaiming ourselves and rendering ourselves “well,” there must be motivation of intent and significant attachment to personal choices. Discipline is essential. Directedness and focus as regards the learning contents and the meaning we ascribe to our Life-World must be actively discovered and purposeful. All becoming and Being must be totality-in-function and a reflection of an integrated whole of the physical, emotional, mental and Spiritual Self. The Divine Image must determine vitality and the bonds in body, soul, Spirit, and Divine. “Know Thyself,” must be applied to the pure outcome of Doing as we release fears, insecurities and attachments, and as we strengthen Truth of Divinity, and not according to human concepts of what that truth is, for we Are much more than the effects of mortal creation and the limiting paradigms we have accepted in different times and places.

As a defining decision in the outcome of “wellness,” and, as an actualization and manifestation of enhanced form, we must begin to marvel at our Spiritual Reality and the mysterious wonders of the Divine Cosmos within and without. By so doing, we create ourselves anew and render ourselves “healed.”

Merging Global Kingdoms

Ignorance within the human family remains the most severe challenge to global healing. We, who come to you again and again from the higher dimensions to stand by your side and support you in your struggles, see the great challenges confronting Gaia today. The planet, of course, will survive, yet how drastically will the Abundant Life Matrix upon this world be devastated? The need for planetary healing is so acute, as humankind continues to be confronted by the environmental evidence and impact of an unrestrained global ego, determined to satisfy its needs regardless of effects. Widespread catastrophic effects are seen now not only in the underdeveloped nations of our species but in the animal, plant, and elemental zones of life throughout the entire planet.

“From synthesis to synthesis the Life of God passes, a progressive absorption into ever larger wholes.”

Synthesis is used to break illusions revealing the crystalline purity of higher truths. Under the Universal Law of Synthesis the human monad (Spirit) is related to the personality. Let this flame come forth and innervate the one-pointed materialistic focus present in the global personality moving it into a position more receptive to spiritual aspiration. May we bear witness to a more pronounced merging between Matter and Spirit lifting humanity towards a new direction where living life is firmly rooted in the principles of wisdom, right human relations, and productive planetary guardianship.

The concern of all evolved beings is to bring about right relations in every field of manifested life. More people than ever before are aware today that we need to forge a new relationship of a spiritual nature for the sanctity of all the planetary kingdoms of life.

While unity in diversity is steadily bringing forth a more cohesive human family, this trend to merge all into one is not proving beneficial to animal, plant, and elemental kingdoms. Plant and animal life are moving around the world at an alarming rate, an unprecedented 3,000 species per day. Carried by plane, ships, train and car, they move from native areas to become the invasive animals and toxic plants in other geographic areas. Such planetary cross-pollination is threatening to trigger a massive environmental decimation especially dangerous to over 95% of all mammals. Arrogance and immaturity are commonly seen together. Synthesizing cultures within humanity is helping to dissolve ancient ethical divisions, yet these same measures can produce havoc for other forms of life.

Are we surprised these conditions exist? Not at all. Human beings have always grown faster by observing and re-evaluating the effects of destruction instead of construction. Still, this is a time where accountability for irresponsble actions is all too evident and harder and harder to ignore. In this next age we shall see a concerted effort to move forward based on wisdom in conjunction with a more mature attitude towards all aspects of existence. This is certainly long overdue and only becomes possible when a species finally throws off the heavy burden of managing global affairs through fear, destruction, and war. Whenever the heart of humankind weakens it is always prone to a chaotic creative cycle and the human spirit cannot abide chaos for long without bringing forth a more sophisticated system of order. Such a deeply traumatic and destructive cycle in the human psyche will come to an end in the Aquarian Era and for this all spiritual beings rejoice in gratitude. Our present attitude of domination and predatorship must be transformed into a positive proactive belief that is seen in just human relations and wise guardianship for Gaia. Let us hold the power of intention for these needed transitions to be made willingly instead of being forced to change as a result of our deteriorating surrounding conditions. It is obvious great change for our species lies just over the horizon. May Divine Spirit come forth to infuse, empower, and ascend our species into this more potent manifestation of Light, Love, and Life!
