A Global Perspective on Service

Divine Children of God’s Heart! We come to walk among you once again to lift up the Light of Spirit and proclaim “Let All People Be Free!” Before you stands the coming great transition where science and religion will be wielded into a unified exponent of an overriding spiritual power. This will accelerate much more quickly and break through into a spiritual-prone age where there will be an increased understanding of humanity’s place in God’s Universe.

Today, we see an extreme focus on the logical, analytical, sequential perspective of life. There is still not enough balance with the mystical, the inspirational, and the Divine. Yet, if I would say to all of you what branch of science will now make the most progress in your future, the answer, of course, is spiritual realization. When a soul comes to a conscious vital realization of those great spiritual forces within oneself and begins to use these in science, in business, and in life, then progress in the future will be unparalleled. Few there are who can see the way ahead with crystal clarity. Still, I say to you that the energies of this world are changing dramatically. They will push again on all fronts experienced by humanity until they begin to intensify, concentrate, and re-focus the human force of Spirit toward the greater Light and towards the greater Truth in life.

Man has always sought the glimmer of point and purpose of life even in the darkest of murky ages and under the most oppressive of tyrannies and social chaos and confusion. The individual’s need for self-realization has remained a human constant. In fact, the worse the times, the more the struggle towards enlightenment and evolvment becomes manifest. Truth is like a torch, the more it is shaken, the brighter it shines. The winds of turmoil only fan its flames. This is the true Light of the human Spirit, full of courage and the power of the undefeated heart. It is this true Light you will see revealed in the multitude time and time again in the journey towards the flowering of this new age. Do not lose yourself on the narrow road of self interest, rather, seek to expand your Light and your Heart until your compassion grows and is powerful enough to embrace this entire world.

Beloved Ones!!! There is no one way to be of service. Each soul must find its own endeavors yet never doubt the power and the strength of the immortal flame that burns within you, for you can accomplish miracles and indeed in Aquarius you shall bring forth many great wonders. Do not be so quick to discount the mystical, for mystery is the only “window” through which a soul can catch a glimpse of Eternal Being or the beauty of Transcendence and to be in touch with that incredible part of its Being. Use the strength of your will to bring greater justice and equality to our world. All initiates are charged with the task of bringing heaven to earth; we welcome your assistance in this sacred goal. Stand as an example to others of what greater Light, Love, and Life can manifest. Work with us to expand the power of the descending Ascension Flame to lift “onhi” all peoples and all of life!

Through strength and perseverance you have the ability to create a new world of harmony, peace, and love. This is a unique and pivotal time in human evolution. Embrace this incredible opportunity being offered to join together to profoundly influence your world. Get involved; become an active member of this sacred birthing process. Cohesive and cooperative group energy for the purpose of promoting global harmony is what will fuel this new spiritual age. Open your heart to any and all possibilities as they certainly do exist. We affirm that, “With God all things are possible,” and now it is time for humanity to realize the same is true of themselves. The human spirit is graced with infinite potential; therefore, find the renewed courage to actively assist in the transformations of this world. Our love flows forth from us continually to strengthen your heart and invoke the power of your spirit to co-create within matter.

In Light, Love, Life,
MORYA

Quote...

‘It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; because there is not effort without error and shortcomings; but who does actually strive to do the deed; who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotion, who spends himself in a worthy cause, who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement and who at the worst, if he fails, at least he fails while daring greatly. So that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.’

Loving Hearts in Service

When we are pushing through our soul's desire, our passion, and our life's purpose, we serve with an open heart, with honor, and with integrity in physical form, surrendering thus to the One Absolute Creator's Will and Plan so that we make our mark on humanity.

In striving for service, we find humanity's emotional immature inability to get close to others, creates unhealthy boundaries within ourselves. This incapacitates a response of love, compassion, respect, and kindness being shown towards one another.

Humanity is always on guard, is intolerant of others, does not have trust for one another, and is unaware that actions speak louder than words. In becoming more conscious of the full effects of our actions and in understanding the cause behind our effects on others, we will begin to be accountable for our involvement in any given situation.

This emotional immaturity, such as arrogance, control, unhealthy competition, and self-absorption, is due to the ego's lack of expanded awareness of the soul, for the ego sees only the world of form as the ultimate reality and sees the part not the whole. It sees only the illusion and glamour and not the Truth, which is a continual endeavor to be the Light.

As we become these Souls of Light, we plunge through all illusions and glamour, thereby chipping away at any imperfections that prohibit us from being who we really are, our authentic selves. As these veils are lifted from us, and as this is replaced with a higher Truth, we give ourselves permission to grow up emotionally and to make a paradigm shift to mature, and to make a proactive choice to consciously open our hearts and walk in Love. This allows us to have forgiveness and to be forgiven; to have compassion; to have our words match our actions; to be truthful; to trust; to have honor and respect for one another; to be kind; to have integrity; to create healthy boundaries; to be receptive; to be assertive; to negotiate; and to resolve conflicts in more harmonious ways.

Beloved Lightworkers and Souls of Light. We, as one collective consciousness, are embarking on some of the most exciting events for our souls. As we surrender to the One Absolute Creator's Will and Plan, we begin to externalize our soul's desire, our passion, and our purpose. Let us join together with loving hearts in service and evolve humanity as guardians, custodians, and wise ambassadors of our planet, so that we may take our rightful place: to live in harmony, peace, and freedom; to bear witness to the birth of a new world; and to herald the dawning of the Age of Aquarius becoming a reality of greater Light, Love, and Affirming Life.

Quote.

'I've come to believe that each of us has a personal calling that's as unique as a fingerprint – and that the best way to succeed is to discover what you love and then find a way to offer it to others in the form of service, working hard, and also allowing the energy of the universe to lead you.'

Oprah Winfrey (1954 - ), O Magazine, Sept. 2002

Service

When I think of Service, I think of God and of God in me, as me, going forth into the world in Service.

Basically, I have met two types of people during my journey through life. The human condition comprises of: 1) those who want to be cared for, which includes babies, small children, spouses, and often friends or family members, many of whom were or are alcoholics, addicts, or involved in some sort of addictive behavior and who think they must be taken care of; and 2) those who are the caregivers, the peacemakers, the lightworkers, the spiritual gurus and avatars, who put the welfare of others above, or at least equal to themselves in life. This does not include the compulsive care giving co-dependent who is addictively taking care of someone, usually because he/she has not quit care giving long enough to discover who they are. These codependents take care of people rather than empowering people to take care of themselves.

So, how do we transition from the childhood experience of being cared for to one of service, where we are meeting our own needs--service to self, meeting the needs of others such as spouse, children, or employer, and being of greater service to the city, the country, and the world? This I believe is done through intent, the intent to do something worthwhile and good, to help, to be of service. It is easy to achieve this with a new baby, for when the baby cries we reach for it, feed it, or change it. Right now, however, Mother Earth is crying, and we need to reach out to her with environmental solutions, with a cessation of anger and fighting, and with love.

As I got older and became more spiritual, and when working for others was not necessary, I began to seek groups, causes, and endeavors that would improve the planetary good. I became a lightworker, spending my time with various groups, churches, lists, blogs, websites, etc. that spoke about evolving the planet into a more Godly consciousness. I began to write, sometimes inspired by various angels and masters, and to submit articles to various places at varying spiritual levels. I saw clients with various needs including those with emergency health challenges or spiritual evolvment challenges.

Lately, I have been directed to start a peace ministry, and this is still unfolding. I prepared a class on peace, wrote a book on peace, I take part in a church as a peace minister, I attend various events about peace in Phoenix, where I live, including events conducted by our local Arizona Department of Peace Campaign Coordinators. Information about your state can be obtained at <http://thepeacealliance.org>. I think about art for peace that we could put in our homes to help us focus on peace, and I teach about possible ways we can employ to create peace such as spending two hours a week working on peace efforts, including reading, attending meetings, or volunteering, etc.; by donating $2 a week to a peace project; and by contemplating, meditating, or praying about peace for two hours a week. Service to our planet is not always about big international things. It is about each of us, at our unique level of consciousness, doing something small which, when all put together, will change things to create heaven on earth.
