

MISSION STATEMENT: “One World Heart’s mission is to lift humanity up “onhi” and our planet Earth (Gaia) through education and promotion of the new Aquarian Spirituality, according to the Creator’s Will and Plan.”

Relationships (re-lations-ships): Connections that allow one to evolve, intensify, commune through love and experience towards an eventual unity consciousness.

‘When indeed shall we learn that we are all related one to the other, that we are all members of one body? Until the spirit of love for our fellow men, regardless of race, color or creed, shall fill the world, making real in our lives and our deeds the actuality of human brotherhood; until the great mass of the people shall be filled with the sense of responsibility for each other’s welfare, social justice can never be attained.’

Global Citizenship

Energy follows thought; what we perceive is the reality we project into creation. We are a combination of all the experiences from our past which have brought us into this particular moment in time, the Eternal Now. This is an opportunity, giving us an incentive to find the ability to transcend our own illusions and glammers, reveal the higher truth, and remain as a congruent part, in harmony with regard for the whole. Then, as we mature and surrender to be in compliance with the One Absolute Creator’s Will, and Plan, we press ourselves to serve humanity, to act as one positive, cohesive force in the full alignment of our actions and words, and to reaffirm our intention to stand with our brothers and sisters as enlightened souls of light.

When we unite together as souls of light, we begin to live the reality that each microscopic part is just as important as the greater whole. Like pieces in a puzzle, each part, when connected together, creates the comprehensive understanding and clarity of the totality that is the whole.

To be this enlightened part of the whole, we must accept a paradigm shift in our consciousness, lift the veils of illusion and glamour, reveal the greater truth, and chip away at the imperfections that prohibit us from being the reality of our authentic selves. As these veils are lifted, revealing higher truths, we begin to encounter a new consciousness which propels our souls forward to serve, transcend dualities, and merge into a shared consciousness with a united goal. This is the way a developing soul achieves Global Citizenship.

In the process of fulfilling this purpose of accepting a new consciousness, we learn to take ownership of this position as a Global Citizen. This banding in unity as a collective force to nurture, heal, and support Lady Gaia, is a standing together as one world heart, beating as one new united world, and merging balance and harmony with a blending of head and heart for the betterment of the totality. Souls who embrace a life-affirming position are in compliance with the One Absolute Creator’s Will and Plan for developing respect and value for all forms of life.

Beloved Souls of Light, Divine Children from the One Magnificent Source’s Heart, you have the power as a collective unity to make a difference and to create a change. Band together as one, new, united world heart, beating in unison, in service to all, and heal the traumatized heart of humanity. As guardians, ambassadors, and custodians of your planet, embrace your amazing birthright, and live the reality of a blended head and heart, in balance, harmony, and with peace for one and all. Walk with freedom towards a greater Love, Light, and Life, nurturing, healing, and supporting Lady Gaia for the advancement of the magnificent beauty of God's Divine Love, Will, and Plan, and for the sustaining of all forms of life that live on Earth. Secure your Global Citizenship!

Djwhal Khul

'Humankind has not woven the web of life. We are but one thread within it. Whatever we do to the web, we do to ourselves. All things are bound together. All things connect'

Chief Seattle

"Open your eyes and look for some man, or some work for the sake of men, which needs a little time, a little friendship, a little sympathy, a little sociability, a little human toil...It is needed in every nook and corner. Therefore search and see if there is not some place where you may invest your humanity."

Albert Schweitzer

'We are members of one great body, planted by nature in a mutual love, and fitted for a social life. We must consider that we were born for the good of the whole.'

Seneca

The Gift of Love

After the gift of life, the greatest gift God gave us is love. Almost everyone has the desire to be loved by someone, to have a companion, to have that special person we can share our thoughts and feelings with, and to grow old with, but in reality, love can often be elusive. We think we know what we want in a relationship, we have certain expectations, and we often believe a particular person is exactly what we truly want. We are attracted to certain qualities, particular attributes, but do we truly know that person and are we seeing the relationship dynamics accurately, or do we see what we want to believe, making the relationship our own personal fantasy that will never stand the test of time.

Love should be based on the reality of who the person is. It is more important to know the intrinsic qualities of a person. Are they loving and caring, or selfish and controlling? Is that individual honest and responsible, and does she/he demonstrate respect and integrity? Love cannot be based on physical attraction or sexual activity alone. Nor should our choice in a relationship be based on outside factors, such as the person's status or financial standing.

As we grow as persons, our perceptions and values often change. If one person grows and the other does not, incompatibility can often result. People change. Their wants, desires, needs, circumstances, goals, or ideas of love can change. People can become dissatisfied with their life and their relationships, thereby resulting in dysfunctional behaviors as evidenced by the staggering divorce rate in America and the increasing number of unwed mothers and traumatized children. Couples are not staying together for life. This is the current reality. Children who grow up in single parent families learn and accept this reality, often replicating the cycle and then having children of their own and raising them alone.

Most people have not fully developed their ability to love. Learn to love and respect yourself by giving to others. As your ability to demonstrate love and compassion to others increases, you slowly evolve until you ultimately learn to respect and love all life. Then you will no longer choose to control and harm others by getting angry and punishing them. Instead, we can choose to stand as good examples to others of a greater maturity. After all, the less self-centered we are, the more socially productive we can become.

We all have talents and abilities. Accept your strengths as well as your weaknesses. A wise person will try to alter and overcome her or his weak areas. If you dislike a certain aspect, quality, or behavior, then change. Become the best person you can be. The most important aspect of love is the ability to love oneself. How can you love another if you have not learned or experienced love of self? Selfishness and co-dependency issues must be resolved. Fear, anger, and hurt feelings must be overcome. If you felt emotional trauma in a previous relationship, you must work through these feelings to heal. Depending upon the severity of the trauma, counseling is sometimes necessary to resolve certain issues and feelings of self worth. It is important to work through the trauma so you may finally have the courage to love again.

No one is “made” specifically for another. The continuous searching for a “perfect mate” has fueled an unrealistic idealized romantic myth. Let us walk ever higher in the Light of Truth. Having unrealistic fantasies can blind us from seeing opportunities that exist in the present. Most souls have many, many relationships in their quest to become more loving.

Not only is love a gift, it is also a conscious choice, based on a variety of factors including our own level of awareness, beliefs, and values. Until the love within expands and transcends self-centeredness, we will continue to have stereotypes, prejudices, and delusions which limit our ability to love others. By striving to love unselfishly with an ever growing wisdom, our ability to evolve in this area expands regardless of the response from another, and we eventually transform ourselves, resulting in a capacity to manifest compassion for all beings.

As you become more aware of your talents as well as your weaknesses, and as your ability to love increases, you begin to realize your effects upon others, either positive or negative. If you have authentic love in your heart, each positive choice will spread the energy of love, in some measure, outwards.

Be a student of life. Continue to learn and grow everyday. See reality and overcome illusion. Be of service to others, for God made everyone, and by serving others, you learn to serve God. Seek to be a manifesting Ray of Light on this world. Let us strive always to live in the Light of Truth: LOVE IS A GIFT, because love can only be given.

New Reality

Oh Divine Essence, I am quenched,
 By Creator's wisdom,
 Wisdom that transcends,
 All time-space-dimension,
 I melt in the perpetual embers,
 Of Creator's Will and Plan,
 And then I rise to create,
 For I am transformed,
 Into spheres of Divine Music,
 And shaped anew into earthly substance,
 I am here to perfect both music and form,
 To dance the spiral labyrinth of life,
 I chose the El path to walk in balance with Gaia,
 Taking the arm of my Creator,

We walk side by side,
 In one hand I carry a Rod of Truth and,
 In the other a Branch of,
 Peace and Divine Understanding,
 Blazing from my heart,
 A shaft of shining golden light,
 I step forth each day to radiate truth and,
 Move in partnership with Creator,
 To co-create is indeed a commitment to life,
 And a great responsibility,
 To divinely co-create is to serve all life,
 I no longer dream the illusion of limiting beliefs,
 Of ending and beginnings,
 I awaken to the,
 Continuous spiral of infinite life,
 To immortality in form and structure,
 I choose to be an instrument for,
 The voice of God,
 The Song of God,
 The Love of God,
 Through movement of my own being,
 To orchestrate this lifetime,
 With abundant giving and receiving,
 I hear you Divine Maestro,
 In the sounds of all creatures, all things,
 And in the silence of all life too,
 The Presence is always there,
 Felt in each waking moment,
 And in my times to rest,
 You are always with me,
 Forever,
 For you and I are One as,
 The I Am That I Am,
 Has now become,
 I Am That I Am All,
 Listen closely for,
 All that we are is One,
 God proclaims all ONE.
 Thank you for this,
 It has been done,
 It has been released,
 The future sanctified,
 Comes now,
 Before all,
 Our New Divine Reality.
